Audrey Crabtree, 99, left, smiles Monday as Sarah Starks plus a 1972 East High homecoming pin once her junior class sponsor wore, is presented with her diploma. Crabtree, who began her education in Wyandotte County, left high school in 1932 due to a swimming and diving accident that left her paralyzed from the waist down. She returned to school to earn her own business and graduate with her great-granddaughter. She went on to run her own business for nearly three decades.
