Parent questions why board not enforcing policy
By NICKI CLONING
COLUMBIANA
A local parent, Melissa Robinson, says she is questioning why the board of directors of the Columbia Area Public Schools is not enforcing its policy on the use of cell phones in the classroom. Robinson says she has written the board several times and has been told that the board is not enforcing the policy because it is not in the best interest of the students. Robinson says she is disappointed in the board's decision and is considering taking the matter to court.

Kan. lt. gov.: New exchange not competitive enough
By KATHY HANSEN
STANBURY
Gov. Jay Rubin says the new exchange rate for the state's coal is not competitive enough. Rubin says the current rate is too low and that it is not in the best interest of the state's coal industry. Rubin says he is considering taking the matter to court.

Camera takes dramatic shot of eagle attack
By JEFFREY W. HANSEN
STANBURY
A camera mounted on a tree in the woods near the town of Stanbury, Mo., captured a dramatic moment on Sept. 25 as a bald eagle swooped down on a young deer. The eagle was seen in mid-air, its wings spread wide, as it attacked the deer. The deer was seen running away from the eagle.
