Parent questions why board not enforcing policy
By NICKI CLONING
A parent of a child at the University of Kansas School of Business is questioning why the board of trustees is not enforcing a policy that requires all students to be vaccinated against measles, mumps and rubella (MMR). The parent, who is not naming the child, says the board is being inconsistent by not enforcing the policy for all students, but only for those who are not vaccinated.
