School board closes meeting for hypothetical purpose
By JENNIFER COOPER
COURT REPORTER
The school board of Scott County closed its meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 24, for a hypothetical purpose, a move that could lead to potential litigation, according to a legal expert.
The board, which meets on the second Tuesday of each month, closed its meeting at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 24, after a 10-minute discussion of a hypothetical scenario involving a potential lawsuit against the board.
