Vision Team hopes for more community input

By MICHAEL COLEMAN

A 120-member Vision Team is working to help the diocese better understand the needs of its parishes and to provide a more unified voice to the bishop. The team, which met for the first time last week, is composed of representatives from 120 parishes across the diocese. The team's goal is to provide the bishop with a comprehensive report on the needs and concerns of the parishes by the end of the year.
