STUDENTS TO PROVIDE PRE-GAME MESSAGE

District replaces prayer with broader definition to meet legal standard

A group of high school students will deliver a pre-game message at 7 p.m. Wednesday (Sept. 25) at the home of the District's football team, the Bulldogs, at the stadium. The message will be read by a group of students, including members of the District's marching band and cheerleaders. The message will be a prayer for the team and the fans, and will be read by a group of students, including members of the District's marching band and cheerleaders. Help After-Prom by 'skinning a friend'

To have football or soccer signs on both sides of the road is a tradition at many schools. The signs are usually made of cardboard and are decorated with the school's colors and the name of the team.
