District replaces prayer with broader definition to meet legal standard

The school district is providing a message at each home game that is broader in scope than a prayer, to meet the legal standard set by the U.S. Supreme Court in Lemon v. Kurtzman (1971). The message will be read by a student at each game.

The message will be read by a student at each game. It will be read by a student at each game. It will be read by a student at each game. It will be read by a student at each game.

Help After-Prom by 'skinning a friend'

To have football or soccer signs on both yards in memory of a friend, you can skin a pig. The money from the sale of the pig skins goes to the American Cancer Society.
