

Thursday, October 10, 2013

Will gov't shutdown affect local residents?
A federal government shutdown could affect local residents in several ways, including the possibility of a pay raise for state employees. The state's budget is set to expire on Oct. 1, and a shutdown could delay the passage of a new budget. This could result in a pay raise for state employees, which is a popular issue among voters.

No injuries in Okla. pipeline blast
A gas pipeline explosion in Oklahoma on Wednesday caused significant damage to the surrounding area, but no injuries were reported. The explosion occurred near a residential area, and the cause is still under investigation.

HALF CENT TO BE ON BALLOT
A city commission will allow public vote on whether to raise the city's sales tax by half a cent. The commission is expected to vote on the issue in the coming weeks. The proposed increase would be used to fund various city services and infrastructure projects.

LEADER & TIMES
$46,000 to be used to provide a college education to area students
Your daily news & more for $27

Obama Administration denies Mass to Catholics
Religious liberty under attack

18 states now selling gas for less than $3 a gallon
States seeing sub $3/gal gas

Police arrest 8 House members at immigration rally

Local gas prices 28 cents higher than state ave.