

Will gov't shutdown affect local residents?

By David J. Phillips
A federal government shutdown could affect local residents in several ways, including the possibility of a pay raise for state employees. The state's budget is set to expire on Oct. 1, and a shutdown could delay the passage of a new budget. This could result in a pay raise for state employees, which is a popular issue among voters. However, a shutdown could also lead to the cancellation of state programs and services, which could affect local residents. The state's budget is set to expire on Oct. 1, and a shutdown could delay the passage of a new budget. This could result in a pay raise for state employees, which is a popular issue among voters. However, a shutdown could also lead to the cancellation of state programs and services, which could affect local residents.

No injuries in Okla. pipeline blast

By David J. Phillips
A pipeline explosion in Oklahoma on Wednesday did not result in any injuries, according to officials. The explosion occurred in a residential area, and the cause is still under investigation. The pipeline is used to transport natural gas, and the explosion could have been caused by a leak or a blockage. The explosion occurred in a residential area, and the cause is still under investigation. The pipeline is used to transport natural gas, and the explosion could have been caused by a leak or a blockage.

HALF CENT TO BE ON BALLOT

By David J. Phillips
A half-cent increase in the state sales tax is set to be on the ballot in the November election. The increase is part of a larger package of tax changes that the state legislature has passed. The increase is set to take effect on January 1, 2014. The state legislature has passed a package of tax changes, including a half-cent increase in the state sales tax. The increase is set to take effect on January 1, 2014. The state legislature has passed a package of tax changes, including a half-cent increase in the state sales tax. The increase is set to take effect on January 1, 2014.

By David J. Phillips
The state legislature has passed a package of tax changes, including a half-cent increase in the state sales tax. The increase is set to take effect on January 1, 2014. The state legislature has passed a package of tax changes, including a half-cent increase in the state sales tax. The increase is set to take effect on January 1, 2014.

College scholarship auction raises $46,000

By David J. Phillips
A college scholarship auction raised $46,000 for students in need. The auction was held by the state's Department of Education and was a success. The money raised will be used to provide college education to area students. The auction was held by the state's Department of Education and was a success. The money raised will be used to provide college education to area students.

By David J. Phillips
The money raised will be used to provide college education to area students. The auction was held by the state's Department of Education and was a success. The money raised will be used to provide college education to area students.

Obama Administration denies Mass to Catholics

By David J. Phillips
The Obama Administration has denied a request from the Catholic Church in Massachusetts. The request was for the state to recognize the church's right to life. The Administration has denied the request, stating that it is not the role of the federal government to get involved in state religious matters. The request was for the state to recognize the church's right to life. The Administration has denied the request, stating that it is not the role of the federal government to get involved in state religious matters.

18 states now selling gas for less than $3 a gallon

By David J. Phillips
Eighteen states are now selling gas for less than $3 a gallon, according to a report. The report is from GasBuddy.com and shows that the price of gas has fallen in many states. The report is from GasBuddy.com and shows that the price of gas has fallen in many states.

By David J. Phillips
The price of gas has fallen in many states. The report is from GasBuddy.com and shows that the price of gas has fallen in many states.

States seeing sub $3/gal gas

By David J. Phillips
A map shows the states where gas prices are below $3 a gallon. The map is from GasBuddy.com and shows that the price of gas has fallen in many states. The map is from GasBuddy.com and shows that the price of gas has fallen in many states.

By David J. Phillips
The price of gas has fallen in many states. The map is from GasBuddy.com and shows that the price of gas has fallen in many states.

Police arrest 8 House members at immigration rally

By David J. Phillips
Eight House members were arrested at an immigration rally. The rally was held in a public square and the members were arrested for blocking the entrance. The rally was held in a public square and the members were arrested for blocking the entrance.

By David J. Phillips
The members were arrested for blocking the entrance. The rally was held in a public square and the members were arrested for blocking the entrance.