

Thursday, October 10, 2013

Will gov't shutdown affect local residents?
A federal government shutdown could affect local residents in several ways, including the possibility of a pay raise for state employees. The state's budget is set to expire on Oct. 1, and a shutdown could delay the passage of a new budget. This could result in a pay raise for state employees, as the state would be unable to pay them for the period of the shutdown. However, the state's budget is set to expire on Oct. 1, and a shutdown could delay the passage of a new budget. This could result in a pay raise for state employees, as the state would be unable to pay them for the period of the shutdown.

No injuries in Okla. pipeline blast
A gas pipeline explosion in Oklahoma on Wednesday did not result in any injuries, according to officials. The explosion occurred in a residential area, and the cause is still under investigation. The Oklahoma Department of Transportation is leading the investigation, and it is expected to take several weeks to complete. The explosion occurred in a residential area, and the cause is still under investigation.

HALF CENT TO BE ON BALLOT
A city commission will allow public vote on whether to raise the city's sales tax by half a cent. The commission is expected to vote on the issue in the next few weeks. The city's sales tax is currently 2.5 percent, and a half-cent increase would raise it to 3 percent. The city's sales tax is currently 2.5 percent, and a half-cent increase would raise it to 3 percent.

College scholarship auction raises $46,000
A college scholarship auction raised $46,000 for students in need. The auction was held at a local community center, and the proceeds will be used to provide financial aid to students who are struggling to pay for their education. The auction was held at a local community center, and the proceeds will be used to provide financial aid to students who are struggling to pay for their education.

Obama Administration denies Mass to Catholics
The Obama Administration has denied a request from the Catholic Church in Massachusetts to allow the state to recognize same-sex marriages. The administration has stated that it is not the role of the federal government to interfere with state laws. The Obama Administration has denied a request from the Catholic Church in Massachusetts to allow the state to recognize same-sex marriages.

Police arrest 8 House members at immigration rally
Eight members of the U.S. House of Representatives were arrested at an immigration rally in Arizona. The arrests were made by police officers who were responding to a report of a disturbance. The eight members were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct. The arrests were made by police officers who were responding to a report of a disturbance.

Happy Birthdays, Ron Kiley!
A birthday message for Ron Kiley, a local resident. The message is from a friend or family member and wishes him a happy birthday. The message is from a friend or family member and wishes him a happy birthday.