

ENJOY BILLY'S FAMOUS CURRIE AT HOME ON A SUNDAY EVENING WITH OUR CATERING SERVICE. BILLY'S BIRD HOUSE 4245-4246-4400

KidZone

Church offers afterschool option for children
Page 2A

BIG WIN

Liberal, Goddard combine for 141 points
Page 1B

Young performers express their faith with spiritual dancing

Page 8A

Fight Alzheimer's

Alzheimer's 'Walk' set for Friday

Overcrowded schools?

By David K...

LEADER & TIMES

OCTOBER 20, 2013
Your daily news & more for $27/week

Alzheimer's 'Walk' set for Friday

By ROBERT FROST
A walk to raise money for Alzheimer's research is set for Friday, Oct. 25, at 10 a.m. at the intersection of 14th and 15th streets in Reno. The walk is organized by the Alzheimer's Association of Nevada. For more information, call 775-784-1111.

2nd Reno County resident dies of West Nile

By David K...
A 2nd Reno County resident has died of West Nile virus, the health department announced today. The victim, a 68-year-old man, died on Oct. 18. He had been hospitalized for several days with symptoms of West Nile virus, including fever, headache, and muscle pain. The health department is currently investigating the source of the infection.

Stepmom of teen accused in Fla. bullying arrested

By David K...
A stepmother of a 15-year-old boy accused of bullying in Florida has been arrested. The woman, 42, was arrested on Oct. 18 on charges of child abuse. She is currently being held in jail. The boy's father is also being investigated in the case.

Stepmom of teen accused in Fla. bullying arrested

98-year-old Kansas Dust Bowl-era farmer keeps working the land

By David K...
An 98-year-old farmer from Kansas is still actively engaged in farming. He has been farming since he was 16 years old and has a long history of working the land. He is currently growing corn and soybeans on his family farm. He is a true testament to the hard work and dedication of the Dust Bowl era.

98-year-old Kansas Dust Bowl-era farmer keeps working the land

By David K...
An 98-year-old farmer from Kansas is still actively engaged in farming. He has been farming since he was 16 years old and has a long history of working the land. He is currently growing corn and soybeans on his family farm. He is a true testament to the hard work and dedication of the Dust Bowl era.

98-year-old Kansas Dust Bowl-era farmer keeps working the land