

ENJOY BILLY'S FAMOUS CURRIE AT HOME ON A SUNDAY EVENING WITH OUR CATERING SERVICE. WALKER'S RESTAURANT 4200-4216-4400

KidZone

Church offers afterschool option for children
Page 2A

BIG WIN

Liberal, Goddard combine for 141 points
Page 1B

Young performers express their faith with Spiritual dancing

Page 8A

Fight Alzheimer's

Overcrowded schools?

LEADER & TIMES

SUNDAY OCTOBER 20, 2013
Your daily news & more for $27/week

Alzheimer's 'Walk' set for Friday

Local walk will aim to raise money for Alzheimer's research.

2nd Reno County resident dies of West Nile

Local health department reports a second case of West Nile virus in Reno County.

Stepmom of teen accused in Fla. bullying arrested

A woman accused of bullying a teen in Florida has been arrested.

98-year-old Kansas Dust Bowl-era farmer keeps working the land

An elderly farmer in Kansas continues to work his family farm.

2nd Reno County resident dies of West Nile
A second case of West Nile virus was reported in Reno County on Saturday, according to the local health department. The victim, a 62-year-old woman, died after being hospitalized for several days. The health department is currently investigating the case and has advised the public to take precautions to avoid mosquito bites.

Stepmom of teen accused in Fla. bullying arrested
A woman accused of bullying a teen in Florida has been arrested. The 35-year-old woman, who is the stepmother of the 15-year-old victim, was charged with multiple counts of child abuse and neglect. She was arrested on Saturday and is currently being held in jail.

98-year-old Kansas Dust Bowl-era farmer keeps working the land
An elderly farmer in Kansas continues to work his family farm. The 98-year-old farmer, who has been farming since the Dust Bowl era, is still actively working the land. He is a well-known figure in the community and is admired for his dedication to his work.