

I used to have an open mind but my brains kept falling out.
Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • Overland, KS 66204-2548 • Monday - Saturday
11:30 AM - 10:00 PM • Reservations: 781-222-2222

Protecting Springfield Cemetery
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is currently in the process of reviewing a proposed rezoning of the Springfield Cemetery. The rezoning would allow for the construction of a new 100-unit apartment building on the site. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the rezoning application and will make a decision on whether to approve the rezoning in the next few months.

City to accept $350K grant
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is set to receive a $350,000 grant from the Kansas Department of Transportation. The grant will be used to fund a project to improve the safety of the intersection of 115th Street and 115th Avenue. The project will include the installation of new traffic lights and the widening of the sidewalks.

Hump daaaaaay?
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is currently in the process of reviewing a proposed rezoning of the Hump daaaaaay area. The rezoning would allow for the construction of a new 100-unit apartment building on the site. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the rezoning application and will make a decision on whether to approve the rezoning in the next few months.

El Rancho Encanto hosts 44th Achievement Celebration
Page 3

SW Guidance Center to honor Barrows
By Tom Breen
The Southwest Guidance Center is set to honor a local resident for his achievements in the community. The honoree is a local resident who has made significant contributions to the community in various fields.

Grading system granted reprieve
By Tom Breen
The grading system for the city of Overland Park has been granted a reprieve. The city council has decided to delay the implementation of the new grading system until a later date. This decision was made after receiving feedback from the community.

Board members reluctant to delay options
By Tom Breen
The board members of the city of Overland Park are reluctant to delay the implementation of the new options. They believe that the new options will provide significant benefits to the city and its residents.

Motion to suspend competency-based grading fails 5-5
By Tom Breen
A motion to suspend the competency-based grading system in the city of Overland Park has failed by a 5-5 vote. The motion was proposed by a city council member and was supported by several other council members.

Kansas Supreme Court to hear Hard 50 appeal
By Tom Breen
The Kansas Supreme Court is set to hear an appeal of the Hard 50 law. The appeal is being heard by a panel of three justices. The case involves the constitutionality of the law, which requires that all students in the state must pass a 50% threshold on state tests.

Tyrone commits to keeping teen drivers safe
By Tom Breen
The city of Tyrone is committed to keeping teen drivers safe. The city council has approved a new program that will provide additional training and support for teen drivers. The program will include a series of classes and activities designed to help teen drivers develop the skills and confidence they need to drive safely.