

I used to have an open mind but my brains kept falling out.
Thursday Prime Rib
44 Village Plaza • Overland, KS 66204-2448 • Monday - Saturday
11:30 AM - 10:00 PM • Reservations: 781-222-2222

Protecting Springfield Cemetery
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is currently in the process of protecting the Springfield Cemetery, a historic landmark in the city. The cemetery, which was founded in 1857, is one of the oldest in the state and is home to many notable figures. The city is currently in the process of updating the cemetery's boundaries and is seeking input from the community. The city is currently in the process of updating the cemetery's boundaries and is seeking input from the community. The city is currently in the process of updating the cemetery's boundaries and is seeking input from the community.

City to accept $350K grant
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is set to receive a $350,000 grant from the state to help fund the city's efforts to improve its public safety. The grant will be used to purchase new police vehicles and to fund other public safety programs. The city is currently in the process of applying for the grant and is seeking input from the community.

Hump daaaaaay?
By Tom Breen
The city of Overland Park is currently in the process of addressing the issue of humpbacked sheep. The city is currently in the process of addressing the issue of humpbacked sheep. The city is currently in the process of addressing the issue of humpbacked sheep.

El Rancho Encuentro hosts 44th Achievement Celebration
Page 3

SW Guidance Center to honor Barrows
By Tom Breen
The Southwest Guidance Center is set to honor a local resident for his achievements in the field of education. The center is currently in the process of organizing the event and is seeking input from the community.

Grading system granted reprieve
By Tom Breen
The state's grading system for schools is set to be delayed for another year. The state is currently in the process of reviewing the system and is seeking input from the community.

Board members reluctant to delay options
By Tom Breen
The board of directors for a local organization is set to meet and discuss the organization's future. The board is currently in the process of discussing the organization's future and is seeking input from the community.

Motion to suspend competency-based grading fails 5-5
By Tom Breen
A motion to suspend competency-based grading in schools is set to be voted on by the state legislature. The motion is currently in the process of being debated and is seeking input from the community.

Kansas Supreme Court to hear Hard 50 appeal
By Tom Breen
The Kansas Supreme Court is set to hear an appeal from the Hard 50 program. The court is currently in the process of reviewing the appeal and is seeking input from the community.

Tyrone commits to keeping teen drivers safe
By Tom Breen
The city of Tyrone is set to commit to keeping teen drivers safe. The city is currently in the process of implementing the program and is seeking input from the community.