

I used to have an open mind but my brains kept falling out.
Thursday Prime Rib
At Village Plaza • 4800 W. 15th • 620-432-4400 • Monday - Saturday
Only at Village Plaza with Village Prime Rib. See us for more information at VillagePrimeRib.com

Page 3
Sunday
Children of all ages can enjoy Trick or Treat for United Way

Protecting Springfield Cemetery
By Tom Burt

The city of Springfield is working to protect the historic Springfield Cemetery, which is threatened by a proposed development project. The city is working with the state to ensure the cemetery is protected and preserved for future generations.

City to accept $350K grant
By Tom Burt

The city of Springfield is set to receive a $350,000 grant from the state to support various community programs and initiatives. The grant will be used to fund a variety of projects, including youth programs and community development.

Hump daaaaaay?
By Tom Burt

A group of humpback whales is making headlines as they migrate through the waters near Springfield. The whales are known for their distinctive hump and are a popular sight for tourists.

El Rancho Encuentro hosts 44th Achievement Celebration
Page 3

Ruffino's
The Great Southland Fair

LEADER & TIMES
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2013
Your daily news & news for 127 years

SW Guidance Center to honor Barrows
By Tom Burt

The Southwest Guidance Center is honoring a local resident for their contributions to the community. The recipient is being recognized for their leadership and dedication to public service.

Kansas Supreme Court to hear Hard 50 appeal
By Tom Burt

The Kansas Supreme Court is set to hear an appeal regarding the Hard 50 initiative. The case involves the implementation of the initiative and its impact on the state's education system.

Grading system granted reprieve
By Tom Burt

The state's grading system for schools has been granted a reprieve from a proposed change. The change was intended to make the grading system more rigorous, but it has faced significant opposition.

Board members reluctant to delay options
By Tom Burt

Members of a local board are reluctant to delay the implementation of a new initiative. They believe that the initiative is necessary for the community's future and are committed to moving forward.

Happy Belated Birthday July 20th!

Tyrone commits to keeping teen drivers safe
By Tom Burt

Mayor Tyrone has committed to implementing measures to keep teen drivers safe on the roads. This includes increasing driver education programs and enforcing traffic laws more strictly.

Board members reluctant to delay options