

I'm not a complete idiot, some parts are missing!
Stewie Smackles RUCKUS... Heroes of the BIG WEEKEND!
At Village Plaza in Liberal, KS 678-626-6600 Monday - Saturday
K-12 • 100% Cash • 100% Satisfaction • 100% Fun!

Dunn dispels rumors college has bought Panhandle Eastern building
By Kelli Anderson
Dunn says the rumors are false. The building will be used for other purposes. The building will be used for other purposes. The building will be used for other purposes.

Where did Friday's meteor end up?
Page 3A

INTERNATIONAL FAIR
Sponsored by the Diversity Council and I-15
Page 2A

Tragic crash doesn't stop former soldier
Page 6A

WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 30, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
The daily news & more for I-27 area

Rep. Huelskamp to Democrats: End the racism
WASHINGTON — Rep. Louie Gohmert (R-Texas) on Wednesday urged Democrats to end racism in the House. He said the Democrats are the only ones who are not racist.

3 killed in dust storm crashes on I-10 in Arizona
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A dust storm on Wednesday killed three people and injured others as it hit Interstate 10 in Arizona. The storm was the most powerful in the state since 2007.

Man found in wrecked car in Wichita was shot
WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A man found in a wrecked car on a highway in Wichita on Wednesday was shot. The man was found in a car that had rolled over. The man was found in a car that had rolled over.

Rule in Kansas on utility shutoffs taking effect
TOPEKA, Kan. — A rule that prevents utility companies from shutoffs during winter weather is taking effect in Kansas. The rule is the most restrictive in the country.

Lawsuit filed over Prairie Village gun ordinance
PRairie Village, Kan. (AP) — A lawsuit has been filed over a new gun ordinance in Prairie Village. The ordinance bans assault rifles and semi-automatic weapons.