

I'm not a complete idiot, some parts are missing!
Stewie Smackles RUCKUS... Heroes of the BIG WEEKEND!
At Village Plaza in Liberal, KS 678-626-6600 Monday - Saturday
Also at Southwood Plaza in Pittsburg, KS 679-511-1111 Monday - Saturday

Dunn dispels rumors college has bought Panhandle Eastern building
By KATHLEEN COOPER
Dunn dispels rumors that the college has bought the Panhandle Eastern building. The building is still under construction and will not be ready for occupancy until next year. The college is currently leasing the building from the company.

Where did Friday's meteor end up?
Page 3A

INTERNATIONAL FAIR
Sponsored by the Diversity Council and I-15
Page 2A

Tragic crash doesn't stop former soldier
Page 6A

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 30, 2013
This daily news is now for $27/year

Rep. Huelskamp to Democrats: End the racism
WASHINGTON — In a letter to House Democrats, Rep. Louie Gohmert (R-Texas) urged them to end the racism in the immigration debate. He said that the current debate is "a war of attrition" and that Democrats are "trying to win by any means necessary."

3 killed in dust storm crashes on I-10 in Arizona
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Three people were killed and several others injured in a multi-vehicle accident involving a semi-truck and several cars on Interstate 10 in Phoenix, Ariz., on Tuesday. The crash occurred at about 12 miles west of Phoenix. The semi-truck was carrying a load of construction materials. The crash occurred during a heavy dust storm.

Man found in wrecked car in Wichita was shot
WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A man whose car was crushed by a semi-truck on Interstate 70 in Wichita, Kan., was shot before he was rescued. The man was found in the wreckage of his car, which had been crushed by a semi-truck. The man was shot in the chest. The police are investigating the shooting.

Rule in Kansas on utility shutoffs taking effect
TOPEKA, Kan. — A rule that prevents utility companies from shutoffing service to homes of low-income customers in Kansas took effect Tuesday. The rule is part of a broader effort to protect vulnerable populations from utility shutoffs.

Lawsuit filed over Prairie Village gun ordinance
PRairie Village, Kan., filed a lawsuit Tuesday against the state for allegedly interfering with the city's gun ordinance. The city has a strict gun ordinance that prohibits open carry in public places. The state is arguing that the ordinance is unconstitutional.