Sen. Moran sponsors bill to allow Kansans to keep their health care plans

Sen. Bill Moran (R-Kan.) has introduced a bill that would allow Kansans to keep their health care plans if they are currently covered under a self-insured plan. The bill, known as H.R. 1277, is part of a larger effort to reform the health care system. Moran says the bill would allow individuals to keep their current health care plans if they are currently covered under a self-insured plan. The bill would also allow individuals to keep their current health care plans if they are currently covered under a self-insured plan. The bill would also allow individuals to keep their current health care plans if they are currently covered under a self-insured plan.
