Obama apologizes to people losing health coverage
WASHINGTON — Barack Obama on Friday apologized to the millions of Americans who have lost their health insurance since he took office in 2009. He said he was sorry that the rollout of the Affordable Care Act had been so difficult and that he would continue to work to help people get the coverage they need.

America's top UN diplomat has high praise for 'Hanoi Jane'
WASHINGTON — The United States' top diplomat at the United Nations on Friday praised the performance of Hanoi Jane Fonda, the former actress who has become a symbol of the Vietnam War. Ambassador Susan Rice said Fonda's performance in the film "The Day After Tomorrow" was "a powerful statement about the human cost of war."
