

It's lonely at the top, but you eat better.
Come watch Alamy Sports Center with Wings, 8 Sports at Alamy Sports Center on Monday, Nov. 18, 7:30 p.m. Wings & Sports might be a bit of a stretch, but it's a great way to enjoy the night.

Board, VISION team kick off week of 16 public meetings today
A board of directors, including the city manager, city council members, and the board of directors, will meet today at 7 p.m. at the city council chambers to discuss the city's vision for the future. The meeting is the first of a series of 16 public meetings that will be held over the next two weeks. The meetings are part of a process to develop a long-term vision for the city and to identify the key issues that will shape the city's future. The meetings will be held at various locations throughout the city, including the city council chambers, the city manager's office, and the city council members' offices. The meetings are open to the public and will provide an opportunity for citizens to voice their opinions and concerns. For more information, visit www.vision2020.com.

Restrooms
Public water or private well?
The city is currently in the process of reviewing the city's water supply options. The city council has approved a resolution to study the feasibility of a public water system. The study will include a cost-benefit analysis and a comparison of the city's current water supply options with a public water system. The city council will meet again on November 25 to discuss the results of the study. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the city's water supply options. The city council has approved a resolution to study the feasibility of a public water system. The study will include a cost-benefit analysis and a comparison of the city's current water supply options with a public water system. The city council will meet again on November 25 to discuss the results of the study. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the city's water supply options. The city council has approved a resolution to study the feasibility of a public water system. The study will include a cost-benefit analysis and a comparison of the city's current water supply options with a public water system. The city council will meet again on November 25 to discuss the results of the study.

Farmer's Daughter
A book signing event for Farmer's Daughter by Gwen Stevens. The book is a memoir about the author's childhood on a farm in Oklahoma. The signing will be held at the city council chambers on November 20 at 7 p.m. For more information, visit www.gwenstevens.com.

BOOK SIGNING
Gwen Stevens
Hanson book signing event set for Wednesday in Okla. Panhandle Page 3

SCAVENGER HUNT
A scavenger hunt is being held in downtown Topeka. The hunt is open to all ages and will take place on November 19. The hunt is a fun and interactive way to explore downtown Topeka and learn about its history. The hunt will include clues that lead to various landmarks and businesses in downtown Topeka. The hunt is free and open to all ages. For more information, visit www.topekakansas.gov.

MONDAY NOVEMBER 18, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
Year daily news & views for 127 years

finel & tread
CHRISTMAS PARADE WITH A BRAND NEW FORD FOCUS
FOR YOUR HOLIDAY CELEBRATION

Woman killed in Topeka church parking lot
A woman was killed in a shooting in a church parking lot in Topeka. The victim was identified as Stephanie. The shooting occurred on November 17 at the church. The police are currently investigating the case and have not yet identified a suspect. The police are asking anyone who has information about the shooting to contact them at www.topekakansas.gov.

Wife dead, husband wounded in Kansas shooting
A shooting in Kansas resulted in the death of a woman and the injury of her husband. The shooting occurred on November 17 in a residential area. The police are currently investigating the case and have not yet identified a suspect. The police are asking anyone who has information about the shooting to contact them at www.topekakansas.gov.

Half-grown T. rex fossil could answer questions
A half-grown T. rex fossil has been discovered in Kansas. The fossil is a partial skeleton of a young T. rex and is currently on display at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. The fossil is a significant discovery because it provides insight into the growth and development of T. rex. The fossil is a partial skeleton of a young T. rex and is currently on display at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. The fossil is a significant discovery because it provides insight into the growth and development of T. rex. The fossil is a partial skeleton of a young T. rex and is currently on display at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. The fossil is a significant discovery because it provides insight into the growth and development of T. rex.

1 dead, arrest made in store shooting
A shooting in a store resulted in the death of one person and the arrest of a suspect. The shooting occurred on November 17 in a store. The police are currently investigating the case and have not yet identified a suspect. The police are asking anyone who has information about the shooting to contact them at www.topekakansas.gov.

Kan. governor seeks school finance dialogue
The governor of Kansas is seeking dialogue with the state legislature regarding school finance. The governor is currently in a meeting with the legislature to discuss the issue. The governor is seeking dialogue with the state legislature regarding school finance. The governor is currently in a meeting with the legislature to discuss the issue. The governor is seeking dialogue with the state legislature regarding school finance. The governor is currently in a meeting with the legislature to discuss the issue.

18 Nov 2013 10:36 AM - Welcome to the new and improved L&T. When you can't get the print edition go to www.leadertimes.com - Central, Kansas