Downtown updates brand as 'The ROCK'
By MARK CHAMBERS
The spirit of Chicago's most iconic neighborhood is being reborn. The brand of downtown is being updated to reflect the area's new identity. The new brand, 'The ROCK', is a nod to the area's history and its location on the Rock Island bridge. The brand is being used to promote the area's new identity and to attract new businesses and residents.

POWER GRAB IN THE SENATE
Senate Democrats rewrite rules, erasing 255 years of filibuster rights of the minority
By MICHAEL WATSON
WASHINGTON — Senate Democrats on Thursday passed a sweeping new set of rules that would strip the Senate of its filibuster, a move that would allow the majority to pass legislation with a simple majority vote. The move is seen as a major power grab by the Democrats, who are in the minority in the Senate.

Groups want into suit over Kan., Ariz. voter laws
By MICHAEL WATSON
WASHINGTON — A coalition of civil liberties groups is suing the state of Kansas and the state of Arizona to force them to provide more information about their voter ID laws. The groups are arguing that the laws are unconstitutional and that the states are not providing enough information about the laws.

Kan. killing draws attention to resource gap
By MICHAEL WATSON
WASHINGTON — The killing of a young woman in Kansas has drawn attention to the resource gap between the state and the federal government. The state is struggling to provide adequate resources for law enforcement and the justice system.
