

TASTE OF CHINA
FAST AND CARRY OUT
LUNCH $4.99 • Dinner $5.99
Breakfast $3.99 • Breakfast - Kids $2.99 • Breakfast - Kids $2.99

Downtown updates brand as 'The ROCK'
By Mark Collins
The brand of downtown's new identity is being updated to reflect the city's growth and the city's new identity. The new brand is 'The ROCK' and it is being updated to reflect the city's growth and the city's new identity. The new brand is 'The ROCK' and it is being updated to reflect the city's growth and the city's new identity.

the death of Camelot
Nation still questions the assassination of John F. Kennedy 50 years later
Page 5A, 7A, 8A

LEADER & TIMES
FRIDAY NOVEMBER 22, 2013
WINTER IS HERE
Page 2A

POWER GRAB IN THE SENATE
Senate Democrats reinstate rules, erasing 25 years of filibuster rights of the minority
By Matthew Rosenberg
WASHINGTON — Senate Democrats on Friday reinstated a set of rules that would allow them to block legislation by using a filibuster, a move that would end a 25-year period in which the majority has been able to pass bills without the support of the minority.

CHRISTMAS PARADE
1 P.M. FOR TOWN SQUARE
DOWNTOWN LIBERAL

Groups want into suit over Kan., Ariz. voter laws
By David E. Martin
WASHINGTON — A coalition of groups is asking a federal court to force the state of Arizona to allow voters to sue the state over its voter ID laws. The groups are asking the court to force the state to allow voters to sue the state over its voter ID laws.

Kan. killing draws attention to resource gap
By Matthew Rosenberg
WASHINGTON — A federal judge on Friday ruled that the state of Kansas must provide more resources to its law enforcement agencies. The judge ruled that the state must provide more resources to its law enforcement agencies.