POWER GRAB IN THE SENATE
Senate Democrats rewrite rules, erasing 255 years of filibuster rights of the minority
By MICHAEL WATSON
WASHINGTON — Senate Democrats on Thursday passed a sweeping new set of rules that would strip the Senate of its filibuster, a move that would allow the majority to pass legislation with a simple majority vote. The move is seen as a major victory for Democrats, who have long sought to end the filibuster, a procedural device that has often blocked their agenda.
