Happy Thanksgiving

THANKSGIVING IN AMERICA
The 15th day of the month of November is celebrated as Thanksgiving in the United States. It is a national holiday that is celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November. The holiday is a time for families to gather and give thanks for the blessings of the past year. The holiday is also a time for giving and charity. Many people donate to food banks and other organizations that help the less fortunate. The holiday is also a time for reflection and gratitude. Many people take time to think about the things they are grateful for and the people who have helped them throughout the year.

CORONADO TO ROOSEVELT
The Coronado National Monument is a large area of public land in southeastern Arizona. It is named after the Spanish explorer Francisco Coronado, who led an expedition to the region in the 16th century. The monument is home to a variety of natural resources, including the Coronado National Forest and the Coronado National Monument. The monument is also a popular destination for tourists and outdoor enthusiasts. The monument is a beautiful area with many scenic views and a rich history.

30 years later, former church students thankful for those that taught them faith while riding on the glory bus
A group of former students from the Church of the Holy Spirit in Liberal, Kansas, gathered for a reunion on the "glory bus" to celebrate the church's 30th anniversary. The group, consisting of men and women of various ages, posed for a group photo on the bus. The church has been a central part of the community for many years, and the reunion was a chance for former students to reconnect and share their memories of the church and the people who taught them their faith.

Ministry crosses town, racial lines
A ministry program in Liberal, Kansas, is working to bridge racial and ethnic divides in the community. The program, called "Ministry Across Town," is a joint effort between the Church of the Holy Spirit and other local churches. The program provides a safe and supportive environment for people of all backgrounds to come together and share their faith. The program has been successful in bringing people from different backgrounds together and fostering a sense of community and understanding.

City moves step closer to increasing housing
The City of Liberal is taking steps to increase the number of affordable housing units in the city. The city is currently in the process of reviewing a new zoning ordinance that would allow for the construction of more multi-family housing units. The city is also exploring other options, such as providing incentives for developers to build affordable housing. The city is committed to providing a safe and affordable place to live for all of its residents.

CHRISTMAS PARADE
The annual Christmas parade in Liberal, Kansas, is a beloved tradition for the community. The parade takes place on the first Friday of December and features a variety of floats, including marching bands, dance troupes, and floats representing local businesses and organizations. The parade is a fun and festive event that brings the community together and celebrates the holiday season.

Ethanol's rise can mean loss of hunting lands
The increasing production of ethanol in the United States is leading to a loss of hunting lands. As more land is converted to agricultural use for ethanol production, there is less land available for hunting and other outdoor activities. This is a concern for many hunters and outdoor enthusiasts who rely on these lands for recreation. The loss of hunting lands is also a concern for conservationists who are working to protect natural resources and wildlife habitats.
