Happy Thanksgiving

THANKSGIVING IN AMERICA
The 15th day of the month of November is celebrated as Thanksgiving in the United States. It is a national holiday that is celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November. The day is a time for families to gather and give thanks for the blessings in their lives. The holiday is rooted in the Pilgrims' first Thanksgiving in 1621. The Pilgrims were a group of English Puritans who had fled to North America in search of religious freedom. They spent the winter of 1620-1621 on the island of Plymouth, Massachusetts. The following year, they were joined by Native Americans who taught them how to grow crops and survive the harsh winter. The Pilgrims held a feast to give thanks for the help they received from the Native Americans. This feast is considered the first Thanksgiving in America.

CORONADO TO ROOSEVELT
The Thanksgiving tradition in Coronado National Monument is rooted in the story of the Pilgrims. The monument is a National Monument in Coronado, Kansas. It is a place of historical significance and is a popular destination for tourists. The monument is a reminder of the Pilgrims' journey and the importance of giving thanks.

30 years later, former church students thankful for those that taught them faith while riding on the glory bus
A group of former church students gathered for a special service to thank their teachers for the faith they instilled in them while riding on the glory bus. The service was held at the church where the students had been attending for many years. The teachers were praised for their dedication and the love they showed to their students. The students expressed their gratitude for the lessons they learned and the memories they created. The service was a touching and memorable event for everyone involved.

Ministry crosses town, racial lines
A ministry program is crossing racial lines and bringing people together in a community. The program is focused on providing support and resources to those in need, regardless of their race or background. The ministry is a testament to the power of love and compassion, and it is a source of hope for many in the community. The program is a reminder that we are all human and that we should treat each other with respect and kindness.

Ethanol's rise can mean loss of hunting lands
The rise in ethanol production is leading to the loss of hunting lands, raising concerns among conservationists. The expansion of ethanol production has led to the conversion of large areas of land into agricultural fields. This has resulted in the loss of natural habitats and the displacement of wildlife. Conservationists are concerned that the loss of hunting lands will have a significant impact on the local ecosystem and the hunting community. They are calling for policies that protect natural resources and ensure the sustainability of the land.

CHRISTMAS PARADE
A Christmas parade is scheduled for the town, featuring floats, bands, and community groups. The parade is a festive and fun event that brings the community together. It is a tradition that has been celebrated for many years and is a highlight of the holiday season. The parade is a great way to show support for the local businesses and organizations and to celebrate the spirit of Christmas.
