Emphasize safety
when decorating
for the holidays
[PHOTO]
The holiday season is a time of joy and celebration, but it's also a time when many accidents occur. According to the U.S. Fire Administration, the number of fires caused by candles and Christmas lights has increased in recent years. To help prevent these accidents, experts recommend taking several safety precautions when decorating for the holidays. First, always use caution when using candles. Never leave them unattended, and always place them on a stable, non-flammable surface. Second, be careful when using Christmas lights. Make sure they are properly plugged into a GFCI outlet, and never use them outdoors if they are not rated for outdoor use. Finally, always use ladders safely when decorating, and never drink and drive. By following these simple safety tips, you can enjoy the holidays safely and without incident.

Potted Christmas trees produce holiday cheer all year long
A potted Christmas tree is a great way to bring the holiday spirit into your home all year long. Unlike a traditional cut tree, a potted tree can be kept in your home for as long as you like, and it will continue to grow and produce new branches and needles. This means you can enjoy the look and feel of a real tree without the mess and expense of a cut tree. Potted trees are also a great option for people who live in apartments or have limited space, as they can be moved easily and stored away when not in use. If you're looking for a way to bring the holiday cheer into your home all year long, a potted Christmas tree is the perfect choice.

After second opinion, deadline day for ObamaCare website re-do arrives
[PHOTO]
The ObamaCare website is facing a deadline to be reworked after a second opinion from the Department of Health and Human Services. The website has been criticized for being difficult to use and for having many errors. The Department of Health and Human Services has given the website developers a deadline to fix these problems by the end of the year. The website is a critical part of the ObamaCare program, and it is important that it be fixed as soon as possible. The website developers are working hard to meet this deadline, and it is hoped that the website will be improved and easier to use by the end of the year.

Kansas AG evaluating evidence in SE Kan. slayings
[PHOTO]
The Kansas Attorney General is evaluating evidence in the slayings of two young girls in Southeast Kansas. The girls were found dead in a wooded area near their home. The police are investigating the case and have identified several suspects. The Attorney General is reviewing the evidence to determine if there is enough to file charges. The case is currently in the state's attorney's office, and the Attorney General is working to ensure that the justice system is fair and that the girls' families are satisfied with the outcome.

Lions to host SCCC Choir at Monday luncheon at college
[PHOTO]
The Lions Club is hosting the SCCC Choir at a Monday luncheon at the college. The choir will perform several songs and will be a highlight of the luncheon. The Lions Club is a community organization that provides support and services to those in need. The SCCC Choir is a group of students who sing and perform at various events. The luncheon is a great opportunity for the community to come together and support the choir. The event will be held at the college cafeteria on Monday, December 2nd, at 12:00 PM. For more information, please contact the Lions Club at 402-833-2222.
