Emphasize safety when decorating for the holidays

As the holidays approach, many people are decorating their homes for the season. While it's a fun activity, it's important to take safety precautions. The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) reports that the number of fires caused by candles has increased in recent years. To prevent fires, NFPA recommends using candles safely, including never leaving them unattended and keeping them away from flammable decorations.

Potted Christmas trees produce holiday cheer all year long

For those who want to enjoy the beauty of a Christmas tree all year long, potted trees are a great option. These trees are grown in pots and can be kept indoors or outdoors. They are easy to care for and can be decorated for the holidays. Potted trees are also a great gift for those who don't have space for a traditional tree.
