Emphasize safety when decorating for the holidays
Safety is the key when decorating for the holidays. The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) reports that the majority of home fires during the holiday season are caused by candles, which are used in 80 percent of homes. The NFPA also reports that 10 percent of home fires during the holiday season are caused by Christmas trees. To prevent fires, the NFPA recommends that candles be used in glass containers, never left unattended, and never used near flammable decorations. Christmas trees should be placed away from heat sources and lit candles should be kept away from the tree.

Potted Christmas trees produce holiday cheer all year long
A potted Christmas tree is a great way to bring the holiday spirit into your home all year long. Potted trees are available in a variety of sizes and styles, and they can be decorated with lights and ornaments. They are also easy to care for and can be moved around the house as needed.
