

Get off my mind. Back in five minutes.
Slow Smoking BIRD - Home of the BIG WOODY!
A Village Plaza in Liberty, KY 603-932-9695 Monday - Saturday
KID'S BIRTHDAY PARTIES: 100% SATISFACTION GUARANTEE!

Winter Festival brings students indoors
Photo: Catherine Johnson
The annual Winter Festival at the University of Louisville brought students indoors for a day of fun and games. The event featured a variety of activities, including snow machines, hot chocolate, and games. Students enjoyed the festive atmosphere and the chance to socialize with friends.

Interpreter at Mandela event: I was hallucinating
A woman who served as an interpreter at a Mandela memorial event in Louisville said she was hallucinating during the ceremony. She described seeing a ghostly figure of Nelson Mandela and hearing voices that were not hers. The incident has sparked discussions about mental health and the impact of grief.

Public support will share more than $800 in prize money
The City of Louisville is seeking public support for a new building board. Mayor Isiah Whitlock III is looking for ways to fund the project, which would help improve the city's infrastructure and public services. The city is offering a prize of up to $800 to anyone who can provide the necessary funding.

City commissioner Warren proposes building board, mayor isn't sold
Page 6A
City Commissioner Warren has proposed the creation of a building board to oversee the city's construction projects. However, Mayor Whitlock III has expressed his reservations about the idea, citing concerns about the board's authority and the potential for increased bureaucracy.

LIBRARY EXPANDS
The University of Louisville library is expanding its services to better serve the community. The new expansion includes additional study spaces, computer workstations, and a dedicated area for children's books. The library is also offering more programs and events to engage the public.

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2013
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Aviation schools prepare for boom in drone jobs
Several aviation schools are preparing for a projected boom in drone-related jobs. The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) has approved the use of small unmanned aircraft systems (sUAS) for various purposes, including delivery, inspection, and entertainment. Schools are offering courses in drone operation and maintenance to meet the growing demand for skilled professionals in this field.

CHRISTMAS PARADE
The annual Christmas Parade in Louisville is set for next week. The parade will feature a variety of floats, including marching bands, dance troupes, and community organizations. The event is a beloved tradition that brings the community together to celebrate the holiday season.

$250,000 snow leopard among stolen items at LA backyard bash
A $250,000 snow leopard statue was among the items stolen from a backyard party in Los Angeles. The party was a high-profile event, and the theft of the statue, which was a gift from a wealthy donor, has caused a stir in the community. The police are currently investigating the case and have identified several suspects.

L&T now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters
The Louisville Courier-Journal and Times are now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters from children. The letters are being collected for Santa Claus and will be read out loud during the Christmas Eve broadcast. The newspaper is encouraging children to write their wishes and to be good for Santa.

100% SATISFACTION GUARANTEE! Welcome to the new and improved L&T. When you can't get the printed version, go to www.louisvillejournal.com. Liberty, Kentucky