

TASTE OF CHINA
LUNCH $6.99 • DINNER $12.99
10% OFF

CELEBRATE ALL WINTERWAYS

Christmas Open House
Seward County Historical Society will host a Christmas Open House at the Seward County Courthouse. The event will feature a variety of holiday-themed activities, including a live performance by the Seward County Chorus and a display of historical Christmas cards. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit www.schistory.org.

HAY RIDES
Part of Parks and Recreation's Christmas activities, hay rides will be held on December 14 and 15. The rides will take place at the Seward County Courthouse and will feature a variety of holiday-themed activities, including a live performance by the Seward County Chorus and a display of historical Christmas cards. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit www.schistory.org.

Who owns shooting range?
According to 1994 deed, county owns gun range. The Seward County Board of Commissioners is currently reviewing a deed that states that the county owns the shooting range. The deed was recorded in 1994 and is being reviewed to determine if it is valid. The county is currently in the process of negotiating with the current owner of the range. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

Community speaks loud, clear
No new high school building, keep two middle-school model. The community has spoken out against a proposed new high school building. The community has expressed its preference for keeping the current two middle-school model. The community has expressed its preference for keeping the current two middle-school model. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

Some Kan. lawmakers to fight wind power incentives
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Some Kansas lawmakers are set to vote on a bill that would strip federal tax incentives for wind power. The bill is part of a larger effort to reduce federal spending. The bill is currently in the House of Representatives. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

Judge to hear arguments in voter citizenship suit
A federal judge will hear arguments in a lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of a voter citizenship law. The lawsuit was filed by a group of voters who claim that the law is unconstitutional. The judge will hear arguments from both sides of the case. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

L&T now accepting Dear Santa letters
The Letter to Santa program is now accepting letters from children. The program allows children to write letters to Santa Claus and have them read by Santa. The program is currently accepting letters from children. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

CHRISTMAS PARADE
A Christmas parade will be held in downtown Leelanau on December 17. The parade will feature a variety of holiday-themed activities, including a live performance by the Seward County Chorus and a display of historical Christmas cards. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, visit www.sewardcounty.org.

frisco & road

Please Print me
Call 605-855-7143

Christmas Parade
17th & 18th Avenues Dec 17th
Downtown Leelanau