

Semi-auto collision sends Meade man to hospital

By Jeff Hertzberg
A 36-year-old man was hospitalized after a semi-truck collision with a car on Interstate 75 in Meade County on Monday. The driver of the car, 36-year-old James Meade, was taken to the University of Kentucky Medical Center in Lexington for treatment. The semi-truck driver was not injured. The accident occurred at approximately 10:30 a.m. on Monday. Meade was driving a 2011 Ford Focus when it was struck by the rear of a semi-truck. The semi-truck was carrying a load of lumber. The driver of the semi-truck was not injured. The accident occurred on Interstate 75, just north of the Meade County line. The cause of the accident is still under investigation.

County opens all buildings to concealed carry, with 2 exceptions

By Jeff Hertzberg
Meade County has opened all public buildings to concealed carry, with two exceptions. The new policy, which took effect on Monday, allows anyone with a valid Kentucky concealed carry permit to carry a handgun in any public building in the county, except for schools and government buildings. The policy was approved by the Meade County Board of Commissioners on Monday. The board also approved a resolution that allows concealed carry in all public buildings, including courthouses, libraries, and government offices. The two exceptions are schools and government buildings. The board also approved a resolution that allows concealed carry in all public buildings, including courthouses, libraries, and government offices. The two exceptions are schools and government buildings.

PANCAKES WITH SANTA

By Jeff Hertzberg
A young boy in a Santa hat and a girl in a red dress were the stars of a pancake breakfast held by the Meade County Board of Commissioners on Monday. The breakfast was held at the Meade County Courthouse and was attended by about 50 people. The boy, who is 6 years old, and the girl, who is 4 years old, were the winners of a pancake-eating contest. The boy ate 12 pancakes and the girl ate 8 pancakes. The breakfast was a success and the winners were awarded prizes. The Meade County Board of Commissioners also presented the winners with certificates of appreciation. The breakfast was a fun and festive event and everyone enjoyed it.

City closes shooting range for 'safety' reasons

By Jeff Hertzberg
The City of Meade has closed its shooting range for safety reasons. The range, which is located on the east side of town, was closed on Monday. The city officials cited safety concerns as the reason for the closure. The range is used for target shooting and is a popular spot for hunters. The city officials are concerned about the safety of the public and the surrounding area. The range will remain closed until further notice. The city officials are working to find a safe and secure location for the range. The closure is a temporary measure and the city officials are committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all citizens.

LEADER & TIMES

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years
Please Print and Call 606-637-4343
A Community Payment Plan Will be a Convenient Payment Plan for You
MEMBER: Please Call & Receive Discounted Rates on All News Services & More

NY mock trial for 'The Night Before Christmas'

By Jeff Hertzberg
A mock trial is being held in New York City to determine the author of the poem 'The Night Before Christmas'. The trial is being held at the New York State Court of Appeals and is being presided over by Judge Robert W. Jones. The trial is a parody of a real trial and is being held for entertainment purposes. The poem, which was written by Clement Clarke Moore, is one of the most popular Christmas poems in the United States. The trial is being held to settle a long-standing dispute over the authorship of the poem. The trial is being held in a grand jury room and is being held in a public hearing. The trial is being held on Monday. The trial is a fun and festive event and everyone is enjoying it.

Fla. burglar swallows 2 necklaces

By Jeff Hertzberg
A burglar in Florida has swallowed two necklaces. The burglar, who is a 36-year-old man, was arrested on Monday. He was found with two necklaces in his stomach. The necklaces were worth about $10,000. The burglar was arrested after a search of his home. The police found the necklaces in a bag in his room. The burglar was charged with burglary and possession of stolen property. The burglar is being held in jail. The police are working to identify the owner of the necklaces. The burglar is being held in jail until he can be arraigned. The burglar is being held in jail until he can be arraigned.

Judge's word on NSA program won't be the last

By Jeff Hertzberg
A federal judge's ruling on the NSA program will not be the last. The judge, Judge Robert W. Jones, ruled on Monday that the NSA program is unconstitutional. The judge's ruling is a landmark decision and is being widely reported. The NSA program is a controversial program that has been the subject of many lawsuits. The judge's ruling is a victory for civil liberties advocates. The judge's ruling is a landmark decision and is being widely reported. The NSA program is a controversial program that has been the subject of many lawsuits. The judge's ruling is a victory for civil liberties advocates. The judge's ruling is a landmark decision and is being widely reported.

Kan. Supreme Court to hear death penalty appeal

By Jeff Hertzberg
The Kansas Supreme Court will hear an appeal of a death sentence. The appeal is being heard on Monday. The defendant, who is a 36-year-old man, was sentenced to death for the murder of a woman. The defendant is appealing his sentence. The Kansas Supreme Court is the highest court in the state and is responsible for interpreting the state constitution. The appeal is a landmark case and is being widely reported. The defendant is being held in jail. The Kansas Supreme Court is being held in a public hearing. The appeal is being heard on Monday. The defendant is appealing his sentence. The Kansas Supreme Court is the highest court in the state and is responsible for interpreting the state constitution. The appeal is a landmark case and is being widely reported.