

Semi-auto collision sends Meade man to hospital

By Jeff Hertzberg
A 36-year-old man was hospitalized after a semi-truck collision with a car on Interstate 75 in Meade County on Monday. The driver of the car, a 36-year-old man, was taken to the hospital with injuries to his head and neck. The driver of the semi-truck was not injured. The collision occurred at approximately 10:30 a.m. on Interstate 75 near Exit 100. The Meade County Sheriff's Office is investigating the cause of the collision.

County opens all buildings to concealed carry, with 2 exceptions

By Jeff Hertzberg
Meade County has opened all public buildings to concealed carry, with two exceptions. The exceptions are for schools and places of worship. The change is effective immediately. The Meade County Sheriff's Office is responsible for enforcing the law. The law allows anyone who is legally permitted to carry a concealed handgun to do so in any public building, including government buildings, libraries, and public parks. The exceptions are for schools and places of worship, where carrying a handgun is prohibited.

PANCAKES WITH SANTA

By Jeff Hertzberg
A group of children and adults gathered for a breakfast with Santa Claus at the Meade County Courthouse on Monday. The children were excited to see Santa and to receive gifts. The breakfast was served by the Meade County Sheriff's Office. The children were given a special breakfast with Santa Claus and a gift. The breakfast was a success and the children had a great time.

City closes shooting range for 'safety' reasons

By Jeff Hertzberg
The City of Meade has closed its shooting range for safety reasons. The range was closed on Monday. The city officials are concerned about the safety of the public. The range is located in a residential area and the city wants to ensure the safety of the community. The range will be closed until further notice. The city officials are working to find a safe location for the range.

L&T now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters

By Jeff Hertzberg
The Leitchville and Times (L&T) is now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters. The letters should be addressed to Santa Claus, P.O. Box 100, Leitchville, KY 40341. The letters should be received by the newspaper on or before December 15th. The newspaper will deliver the letters to Santa Claus. The newspaper is excited to receive the letters and to help Santa Claus deliver the gifts.

Judge's word on NSA program won't be the last

By Jeff Hertzberg
A federal judge's ruling that the NSA's bulk collection of phone records is unconstitutional is not the final word on the program. The government is appealing the ruling. The government argues that the program is necessary for national security. The judge's ruling is a significant blow to the program, but the government is determined to continue it. The government is planning to appeal the ruling to the Supreme Court.

Fla. burglar swallows 2 necklaces

By Jeff Hertzberg
A burglar in Florida has swallowed two necklaces. The burglar was caught after a break-in at a home. The burglar was found with the necklaces in his stomach. The burglar is now in custody. The police are investigating the case. The burglar is a 30-year-old man. The necklaces were worth several thousand dollars. The burglar is being held in a local jail.

Kan. Supreme Court to hear death penalty appeal

By Jeff Hertzberg
The Kansas Supreme Court will hear an appeal of a death sentence. The appeal is from a man who was sentenced to death for a murder. The man's lawyers argue that the sentence is unconstitutional. The Kansas Supreme Court will hear the appeal on Monday. The man's lawyers are hoping for a reversal of the sentence. The Kansas Supreme Court is the final authority on the matter.

NY mock trial for 'The Night Before Christmas'

By Jeff Hertzberg
A mock trial is being held in New York City for the poem 'The Night Before Christmas'. The trial is being held at the New York State Court of Appeals. The trial is a parody of a real trial. The poem is being read and the judge is making a decision. The trial is a fun and educational event. The judge is expected to find the poem guilty of being too long and too boring.

LEADER & TIMES

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years
Please Print and Call 606-617-6333
A Community Payment Plan Will be a Convenient Payment Plan for You
MEMBER: Please Call & Receive Discounted Rates on All Services
We are now accepting 'Dear Santa' letters

NY mock trial for 'The Night Before Christmas'

By Jeff Hertzberg
A mock trial is being held in New York City for the poem 'The Night Before Christmas'. The trial is being held at the New York State Court of Appeals. The trial is a parody of a real trial. The poem is being read and the judge is making a decision. The trial is a fun and educational event. The judge is expected to find the poem guilty of being too long and too boring.

Fla. burglar swallows 2 necklaces

By Jeff Hertzberg
A burglar in Florida has swallowed two necklaces. The burglar was caught after a break-in at a home. The burglar was found with the necklaces in his stomach. The burglar is now in custody. The police are investigating the case. The burglar is a 30-year-old man. The necklaces were worth several thousand dollars. The burglar is being held in a local jail.

Kan. Supreme Court to hear death penalty appeal

By Jeff Hertzberg
The Kansas Supreme Court will hear an appeal of a death sentence. The appeal is from a man who was sentenced to death for a murder. The man's lawyers argue that the sentence is unconstitutional. The Kansas Supreme Court will hear the appeal on Monday. The man's lawyers are hoping for a reversal of the sentence. The Kansas Supreme Court is the final authority on the matter.