Rotary Club members and SANTA CLAUS bring Christmas cheer to students at Washington Elementary
SANTA CLAUS, a member of the Rotary Club of Sioux Falls, visited Washington Elementary School on Tuesday to bring Christmas cheer to the students. The Santa Claus was accompanied by several members of the Rotary Club, including the club's president, Steve Johnson. The students were very excited to see Santa Claus and to receive gifts from him. The Rotary Club is a service organization that works to improve the lives of others through various community service projects.

Vote's in the mail?
If South County has had a mail ballot, it was before my time, clerk says

Only a few pounds of pecans remain
There's still time to buy them. The pecan harvest is nearly over, and only a few pounds of pecans remain. The pecan harvest is a seasonal event that brings in a lot of business for the growers. The pecans are a popular nut and are used in a variety of products, including pecan pie, pecan butter, and pecan oil. The harvest is expected to be a good one, and the prices are expected to be low.

Dear Santa letters due by noon Friday
The end of the school year is here, and it's time to write your Dear Santa letters. The letters are due by noon on Friday. The letters are a fun way for children to express their wishes for the holidays. The letters are also a great way for children to practice their writing skills. The letters are typically read by Santa Claus on Christmas Eve.

Hutchinson Tyson Foods plant cited by OSHA
The Hutchinson Tyson Foods plant in Sioux Falls, S.D., has been cited by OSHA for safety violations. The violations include inadequate fall protection, inadequate machine guarding, and inadequate safety training. OSHA is a federal agency that is responsible for enforcing workplace safety laws. The citations are a warning to the plant to improve its safety practices. The plant is expected to appeal the citations.

N.D. to let man in same-sex marriage wed woman, too
North Dakota is set to allow a man in a same-sex marriage to marry a woman. This is a significant step towards equality for the LGBTQ+ community. The law will allow a man who is married to another man to also marry a woman. This is a departure from the traditional definition of marriage as a union between a man and a woman. The law is expected to take effect in the near future.
