

Smile, it's the second best thing you can do with your lips.
Thursday, December 19, 2013
An Village Plaza • Liberty, N.J. • 609-426-4600 • Monday - Saturday
10:30 AM - 10:00 PM • 10:30 AM - 10:00 PM • 10:30 AM - 10:00 PM

Rotary Club members and SANTA CLAUS bring Christmas cheer to students at Washington Elementary
WASHINGTON — A group of Rotary Club members and Santa Claus brought Christmas cheer to the students of Washington Elementary School on Tuesday. The group, which included Santa Claus, Mrs. Paul Stone, and several other members, visited the school to bring gifts and cheer to the children. The students were very excited to see Santa Claus and to receive their gifts. The Rotary Club members also performed a play for the students. The visit was a success and the children had a wonderful time.

Vote's in the mail?
If Summit County has had a mail ballot, it was before my time, clerk says
SUMMIT COUNTY — A clerk says that Summit County has never had a mail ballot. The clerk, who has worked for the county for many years, says that the county has always used a traditional voting system. He says that he has never seen a mail ballot and that he has never heard of anyone using one. He says that the county has always used a traditional voting system and that he has never seen a mail ballot.

Parks dept. making progress at Leece Park
Page 7A
LEECE PARK — The Parks Department is making progress at Leece Park. The department has been working on the park for several months and has made significant improvements. The park is now a beautiful and well-maintained area. The department has planted many trees and shrubs and has installed new benches and lighting. The park is now a great place to visit and enjoy the outdoors.

Only a few pounds of pecans remain
There's still time to buy them. The county has a few pounds of pecans remaining. The pecans are of high quality and are a great addition to any holiday meal. The county has a limited supply and the pecans will sell out soon. If you are interested in buying pecans, please contact the county office at 609-426-4600.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & more for 127 years

Polio Found in 1950s
A Christmas Present For Me, a New Year's Gift For You
A Christmas Present For Me, a New Year's Gift For You
A Christmas Present For Me, a New Year's Gift For You

Bipartisan budget agreement nears final passage
WASHINGTON — A bipartisan budget agreement nears final passage in the U.S. House of Representatives. The agreement, which was reached after several days of negotiations, provides for a two-year budget and a debt ceiling increase. The agreement is expected to be passed by the House in the coming days. The agreement is a significant step towards resolving the budget impasse and avoiding a government shutdown.

'Dear Santa' letters due by noon Friday
WASHINGTON — The deadline for "Dear Santa" letters is noon on Friday. The letters are to be sent to the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C. The letters are a tradition that allows children to write to Santa Claus and tell him what they want for Christmas. The letters are read aloud in the U.S. Capitol and are a popular holiday tradition.

Hutchinson Tyson Foods plant cited by OSHA
WASHINGTON — OSHA has cited a Tyson Foods plant for safety violations. The citation was issued after an OSHA inspector found several safety hazards at the plant. The hazards included inadequate fall protection, unsafe work practices, and inadequate training. OSHA is working with the plant to correct the violations and improve safety. The citation is a warning that the plant must take steps to ensure the safety of its workers.

N.D. to let man in same-sex marriage wed woman, too
WASHINGTON — North Dakota is considering a bill that would allow a man in a same-sex marriage to marry a woman. The bill, which is currently in the state legislature, would allow a man who is already married to another man to marry a woman. The bill is a controversial issue and has sparked a debate about same-sex marriage and the definition of marriage. The bill is expected to be passed in the coming months.