Defibrillator vest a blessing for Spearman man
A 57-year-old man in Wilmington, Delaware, who has a heart condition, says a defibrillator vest is a blessing for him. The vest is a life-saving device that can be used to restart a heart that has stopped beating. The man, who is a member of the Wilmington Police Department, says the vest is a blessing for him because it gives him the confidence to go to work every day.
