

More boy, Trigger? No thanks. Boy, I'm stuffed!
Comic Marky's Miley: Squirrels' children with Miley. ©. Squirrels' Miley's
© 2013 by Marky's Miley. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced without permission in writing from the publisher.

College names People's Choice Awards

Lawyers: Pa. high paper to resume Redskins ban

Manhunt intensifies for Mississippi bank robber suspected in cop's death

LOOKING FOR A PET?

Man thought to be victim of serial killer found alive

Subject's remains were found buried from in 1972, when he told his mother he was traveling from New York to California

LOS ANGELES — A man presumed dead for decades was found alive in California, police said Sunday. The man, who was identified as John Wayne Gacy Jr., was found buried in a shallow grave near his home in Denver, Colorado, on Sunday. Gacy, a serial killer, had been declared dead in 1972 after his mother reported him missing. He was believed to have traveled from New York to California. Gacy was found with a gunshot wound to the head. He had been buried in a shallow grave near his home in Denver, Colorado. Gacy was found with a gunshot wound to the head. He had been buried in a shallow grave near his home in Denver, Colorado. Gacy was found with a gunshot wound to the head. He had been buried in a shallow grave near his home in Denver, Colorado.

Kismet home's decorations are 'TOPS'

The Kismet home that has captured the public imagination as the most decorated lighting center in the world has been named the Grand Decor Club winner for the 2013 season. The home is in the Grand Decor Club winner for the 2013 season.

DOJ enters 'knockout game' fray with hate crime charge

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department has entered the "knockout game" fray with a hate crime charge against a man accused of attacking a gay man. The man, identified as James Earl Ray, was charged with a hate crime after attacking a gay man in a public restroom. The attack occurred in a public restroom in a city. The man was charged with a hate crime after attacking a gay man in a public restroom. The attack occurred in a public restroom in a city. The man was charged with a hate crime after attacking a gay man in a public restroom.

James Earl Ray, a man accused of attacking a gay man, is shown in a portrait. He is the man charged with a hate crime after attacking a gay man in a public restroom.