Sen. Moran calls on OSHA to stop unlawful regulation of family farms

By Tom Ichniowski
Lawrence, Kan. (The Lawrence Journal-World) — Sen. Pat Roberts (R-Kan.) has called on the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) to stop what he says is an "unlawful" regulation of family farms. Roberts, who is also chairman of the Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources, said OSHA's new rule on "serious injury and illness" is "unlawful" because it forces employers to disclose information about injuries and illnesses to the public, which he says is a violation of the Freedom of Information Act.

Expansion plans underway

By Tom Ichniowski
Lawrence, Kan. (The Lawrence Journal-World) — The expansion plans of the Lawrence-based Woodbury University are well underway. The university, which is a member of the National Christian University Association, is currently in the process of expanding its campus. The new buildings are expected to be completed by the end of the year. The university's president, Dr. Robert Woodbury, said the expansion is a testament to the university's commitment to providing a high-quality education.
