

There's too much blood in my caffeine system.
Thursday's Preview: His
An Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67220-6200 • Monday-Saturday
Hours: 10:00am-6:00pm • 787-234-2342 • www.roadartist.com

Gov. prepares to give State of State address
Gov. Sam Brownback is preparing to give the annual State of the State address to the Legislature on Thursday. The address is expected to be held in the Senate Chamber at 10 a.m. The governor will discuss the state's economic recovery, education, and healthcare. He will also announce his budget for the next fiscal year. The address is a key event in the state's political calendar.

City hears update on school expansion plans
The Board of Education will hear an update on the city's school expansion plans during a public hearing on Thursday. The hearing will be held at 7 p.m. at the city council chambers. The board will discuss the proposed expansion of the city's school district, which includes the construction of new classrooms and the hiring of additional teachers. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the feasibility of the expansion.

ROAD ARTIST
Hugoton teacher brings realistic sculpture to Baker Arts
Page 2A

WEDNESDAY JANUARY 15, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & news for 127 years

Volunteer drivers are needed for veterans VA transportation
Drivers must have a valid driver's license, auto insurance and pass a physical provided by Amvets/VCA. Contact Carolyn Kingham at 866-316-7411 for information.

Topoka 17-year-old accused of planning school shooting
A 17-year-old student from Topoka is accused of planning a school shooting. The student, whose name has not been released, is alleged to have communicated with several individuals regarding the plot. The incident has caused significant concern in the community, and law enforcement is actively investigating the case.

Guymon Relay For Life announces scheduled events
The Guymon Relay For Life team has announced the dates for their upcoming events. The relay will take place on Thursday, January 23, from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. The event is a fundraising effort to support cancer research and patient care. The team is currently accepting registrations and donations.

Kansas board recommends individual study plans
The Kansas State Board of Education has recommended that students follow individual study plans. The board's recommendation is based on research showing that personalized learning can improve student outcomes. The board will discuss the recommendation at its next meeting. The plan would allow students to progress through their coursework at their own pace.

Plains United Methodist Men announce Ground Hog Supper date
The Plains United Methodist Men are announcing the date for their annual Ground Hog Supper. The event will be held on Saturday, February 1, at 6 p.m. at the Plains United Methodist Church. The supper is a popular fundraising event that brings the community together. Tickets are available for purchase.

Okla. gay marriage ban struck down; ruling on hold
A federal judge has struck down the Oklahoma ban on gay marriage, but the ruling is on hold. The judge, in a decision that is expected to have nationwide implications, ruled that the ban is unconstitutional. However, the ruling is being stayed pending an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. The decision is a significant victory for the LGBTQ+ community.

