Newly discovered audio recording of MLK Jr. speech released today
KENNEDY

A newly discovered audio recording of Martin Luther King Jr.'s speech at the funeral of John F. Kennedy on August 28, 1963, in New Orleans, La., is set to be released today. The recording was found in a collection of tapes belonging to a woman who had been in contact with King at the time of his death in Memphis. The woman, who has asked for her name to be withheld, told the recording was made by a man who had been in contact with King at the time of his death. The recording is believed to be a complete and accurate version of King's speech, which is expected to be released in the coming days.
