Rep. Petty to co-sponsor transparency bill
Rep. Benjamin Petty, R-1, announced today that he will be co-sponsoring a bill to increase transparency in the state government. The bill, HB 100, would require all state agencies to post their budgets and financial information on a public website. Petty said the bill is important because it will allow citizens to see how their tax dollars are being spent. The bill is expected to be introduced in the House in the next few weeks.

Ohio ex-con charged in fatal shooting of girl, 5
A 35-year-old man with a criminal record was charged with the murder of a 5-year-old girl in Ohio. The man, identified as James Earl Ray, was arrested on Monday. He is accused of shooting the girl in a public area. The girl was taken to a hospital but died of her injuries. Ray is currently being held in custody and is facing multiple charges, including murder and child endangerment. The case is being handled by local law enforcement and the state attorney general's office.

State victories create dilemma for abortion foes
State victories in the Supreme Court have created a dilemma for abortion opponents. While they have won several cases, they have also lost others, leaving them in a difficult position. The Supreme Court has ruled in favor of the pro-life side in several cases, but it has also ruled in favor of the pro-choice side in others. This has led to a complex legal landscape that is difficult to navigate. Abortion opponents are now faced with the question of whether to continue to litigate or to accept the current state of the law. The Supreme Court's decisions have also led to a more polarized political environment, with each side becoming more entrenched in their positions.
