

Things are more like they are now than they ever were before
SLOW SMOKE BBQ - HOME OF THE BIG WOODY
14 Village Plaza, Columbia, SC 29204-2600 Member: 250000
90% of South Korea's beef is imported from the U.S. (AP Photo/Mark Lenz)

National Beef employees pay it forward

Employees of National Beef, a major supplier of beef to the fast-food industry, are paying it forward by donating to a local charity. The company's employees have donated over $10,000 to the American Red Cross to help with disaster relief efforts.

Semi-pickup collision severely injures Liberal man

A 45-year-old man from Liberal, Mo., was severely injured in a collision between a semi-truck and a pickup truck. The man was taken to a hospital and is expected to have a long recovery period.

Incumbent Linenbroker files for re-election to county commission

Incumbent Linenbroker is running for re-election to the county commission. He has a strong record of service and is looking forward to continuing his work for the community.

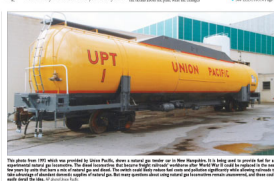

Education efforts expand to election

Education efforts are expanding to include election-related activities. The goal is to increase voter participation and ensure that citizens are well-informed about the issues at hand.

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 2014
Your daily news & views for 127 years

College to offer Defensive Driving courses

A local college is offering defensive driving courses to help students improve their driving skills and reduce the risk of accidents. The courses are designed for both new and experienced drivers.

The photo from 1957, which was provided by Union Pacific, shows a steam locomotive pulling a train. It is a historical artifact that highlights the company's long history in the rail industry.

Union victory: Pom-watching Wisconsin teacher awarded new job, back pay

A Wisconsin teacher who was fired for watching a professional wrestling match has won a court battle. The court ruled in her favor, awarding her a new job and back pay.

Natural gas locomotives may prove cheaper, cleaner

Natural gas locomotives are being developed as a more cost-effective and environmentally friendly alternative to diesel locomotives. They offer significant advantages in terms of fuel efficiency and emissions.