

Things are more like they are now than they ever were before
Grow Smokin' BIG! Home of the BIG WOODY!
• 4 Village Plaza • Liberty, N.C. 828-426-4600 • Member: Growers
• 100% Smokeless Tobacco • 100% Natural • 100% Delicious

National Beef employees pay it forward

The National Beef employees are paying it forward by donating to the National Beef Foundation. The foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that provides financial assistance to beef producers in need. The employees are proud to support their industry and the foundation's mission.

Semi-pickup collision severely injures Liberal man

A Liberal man was severely injured in a collision between a semi-truck and a pickup truck. The accident occurred on a highway near Liberal, Mo. The man was taken to a hospital and is currently in critical condition. The cause of the accident is still under investigation.

Incumbent Linenbroker files for re-election to county commission

Incumbent Linenbroker has filed to run for re-election to the county commission. He is currently serving his second term and is seeking a third term. The election will be held in the upcoming general election.

Education efforts expand to election

Education efforts are expanding to include election-related information. The goal is to help voters make informed decisions at the polls. This includes providing information about candidates, issues, and the voting process.

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 2014
Your daily news & views for 127 years

College to offer Defensive Driving courses

A local college is offering defensive driving courses to its students. The courses are designed to help students improve their driving skills and reduce the risk of accidents. The courses are available for a limited time.

The photo from 1957, which was provided by Union Pacific, shows a smart gas engine on a New England. It is being used to generate heat for an experimental natural gas locomotive. The photo is part of a collection of historical photos of Union Pacific locomotives.

Union victory: Pom-watching Wisconsin teacher awarded new job, back pay

A Wisconsin teacher who was fired for watching a Pom movie has been awarded a new job and back pay. The teacher was fired by his employer for watching a movie that was deemed inappropriate. The court ruled in favor of the teacher, stating that his actions were protected under the First Amendment.

Natural gas locomotives may prove cheaper, cleaner

Natural gas locomotives are being developed as a cheaper and cleaner alternative to diesel locomotives. They are expected to reduce emissions and lower operating costs. The technology is still in the testing phase, but it shows promise.