Kan. high court upholds Hugoton homicide verdict

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-stadium lineup

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Supreme Court has upheld the homicide verdict against a man accused of shooting a woman in Hugoton in 2007.

The court's decision in State v. Hines is the latest in a series of rulings that have upheld the state's "stand-your-ground" law, which allows a person to use deadly force if they believe it is necessary to protect themselves or others.

Hines was charged with the murder of a woman in Hugoton in 2007. He was found guilty of first-degree murder in 2010. The state's attorney general, Karyn Pryor, had asked the court to overturn the verdict, arguing that the stand-your-ground law did not apply in this case.

The court's decision is a victory for the state's attorney general and the state's stand-your-ground law. It is the latest in a series of rulings that have upheld the state's stand-your-ground law.

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kicker Country Stampede is set to reveal the #BestLineUpEver during its annual event in Hugoton, Kan., on Saturday, Jan. 25.

The event, which is the largest of its kind in the area, will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a rodeo, and a concert. The concert will feature a lineup of local and regional acts, including Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders.

The event is a major draw for the area and is expected to bring in thousands of visitors. It is a celebration of the area's rich cowboy culture and is a must-see event for anyone in the area.

Gun fight: Smith & Wesson, Ruger quit California over stamping requirement

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Two major gun manufacturers, Smith & Wesson and Ruger, have announced they will quit California over a new stamping requirement.

The requirement, which is part of California's new gun safety laws, requires manufacturers to stamp their guns with the state's name. Smith & Wesson and Ruger have announced that they will no longer sell their guns in California because of this requirement.

The requirement is part of California's new gun safety laws, which are designed to reduce gun violence. The laws include a variety of measures, including a ban on assault weapons, a ban on magazine capacity, and a requirement for universal background checks.

Smith & Wesson and Ruger are two of the largest gun manufacturers in the world. They have both announced that they will no longer sell their guns in California because of the new stamping requirement.
