Kan. high court upholds Hugoton homicide verdict

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-stadium lineup

1/25/14 - The Kansas Supreme Court has upheld the homicide verdict against a man accused of murdering a woman in Hugoton, Kan., in 2007.

The court's decision in State v. Hines means that the jury's verdict that Hines was guilty of first-degree murder stands.

Hines was charged with the murder of a woman in Hugoton in 2007. The woman was found shot to death in a field near her home. Hines was arrested and charged with the crime.

The case went to trial in 2010, and the jury found Hines guilty of first-degree murder. He was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole.

The state appealed the verdict, arguing that the jury was improperly instructed on the law. The court rejected the appeal.

The court said that the jury was properly instructed on the law, and that the evidence was sufficient to support the verdict.

Hines is currently serving his sentence in the Kansas State Penitentiary.
