Kan. high court upholds Hugoton homicide verdict

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-of-the-art

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Supreme Court has upheld the homicide verdict against a man accused of murdering a woman in Hugoton, Kan., in 1982.

The court's decision in State v. Hines is the latest in a series of rulings that have upheld the state's use of the death penalty.

The court's decision is a significant victory for the state's prosecutors, who had argued that the verdict was unconstitutional.

The court's decision is based on the fact that the state's use of the death penalty is not unconstitutional.
