

Time is the best teacher; unfortunately it kills all of its students.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza & Liberty, #2 620-628-8800 Monday - Saturday
KANSAS CITY'S BEST STEAK HOUSE

Records: Kansas bomb plot suspect decorated Marine
By STEVE SCHLES
A man accused of plotting a major bombing in Kansas City was decorated for his service in the Marine Corps. The man, identified as a suspect in a 2011 bombing plot, was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Medal for his actions during his deployment to Afghanistan. The award was presented to him by his commanding officer at a ceremony in Camp Pendleton, Calif. The man, whose name has not been released, was a member of the 1st Marine Division. He was deployed to Afghanistan in 2007 and served in various combat roles. The award recognizes his bravery and dedication during his service.

Toddlers love selfies: Parenting in an iPhone age
Page 4A
A young child is seen smiling while a parent takes a selfie with them. The article discusses how parents are increasingly using their smartphones to capture memories of their children, even taking selfies with them. This trend has led to a new genre of social media posts, where parents share photos of themselves with their kids. While some see it as a fun way to document childhood, others worry about privacy and the potential for misuse of the photos.

Education, housing concerns fill tonight's city agenda
A city council meeting is set for tonight, with a focus on education and housing issues. The agenda includes a discussion on the city's budget for the upcoming fiscal year, with a particular emphasis on funding for schools. Additionally, there will be a presentation on a new housing development project in the downtown area. The council is expected to make several key decisions during the meeting.

Woman held in Florida linked to Kansas man's death
Page 3A
A woman arrested in Florida is being investigated for a connection to the death of a Kansas man. The woman, who is currently in custody, is believed to have had a relationship with the man who died. The investigation is ongoing, and authorities are working to establish a timeline of events leading up to the death.

WILL THE WEATHER PLEASE MAKE UP ITS MIND PLEASE MAKE UP YOUR MIND PLEASE!
A cartoon illustration of a man looking frustrated at the weather. The text reads: "WILL THE WEATHER PLEASE MAKE UP ITS MIND PLEASE MAKE UP YOUR MIND PLEASE!"

DLR Group to address Noon Kiwanis Club
The Downtown Leadership Roundtable (DLR) group will be addressing the Noon Kiwanis Club. The group, which includes representatives from various downtown businesses and organizations, will discuss ways to improve the downtown area and support local initiatives. The meeting is scheduled for next week.

American Legionnaires, SAL prepare for Mid-Winter Forum in Hutchinson
Members of the American Legion and the SAL (Sons of the American Legion) are preparing for a Mid-Winter Forum in Hutchinson. The forum is a major event for the organization, where members gather to discuss current events, share ideas, and support each other. The event will include a variety of activities, including a banquet, a presentation, and a social gathering.

California students file suit aimed at tenure law
A group of California students has filed a lawsuit challenging the state's tenure law. The lawsuit claims that the law is unconstitutional and that it prevents the state from hiring and firing teachers based on merit. The students argue that the law is outdated and does not reflect the needs of the state's education system. The lawsuit is currently in the courts, and the outcome is expected to have a significant impact on the teaching profession in California.

LEADER & TIMES
TUESDAY JANUARY 28, 2014
Your daily news & views for 127 years

split track

California students file suit aimed at tenure law
A group of California students has filed a lawsuit challenging the state's tenure law. The lawsuit claims that the law is unconstitutional and that it prevents the state from hiring and firing teachers based on merit. The students argue that the law is outdated and does not reflect the needs of the state's education system. The lawsuit is currently in the courts, and the outcome is expected to have a significant impact on the teaching profession in California.

104 | 104-136-2863 | 2014-1-28 | Page 1 | Welcome to the new and improved L&T. When you can't get the printed version, go to www.ksat.com | Liberty, Kansas