Court: Transgender student's rights were violated

By [Name] [Page 2A]

A federal court has ruled that the rights of a transgender student were violated by the school district. The student, who is a member of the school's gay-straight alliance, was denied the right to use the restroom that corresponds to their gender identity. The court found that the school district's policy violated the student's rights under the Equal Education Opportunity Act. The court ordered the school district to provide the student with access to the restroom of their choice.
