By David Karger
New York (AP) — Woody Allen's friends and supporters are casting doubt on the sexual abuse claims of a woman who says she was sexually abused by the filmmaker in the 1970s.
Allen's friends, including his ex-wife Mia Farrow, are questioning the woman's account of the alleged abuse. They say she has not provided any evidence to support her claims and that she has been accused of fabricating the story for financial gain.
The woman, who is now known as Dylan Farrow, has accused Allen of sexually abusing her when she was a child. She has also accused him of incest with her. Allen has denied these allegations and has sued her for defamation.
