

TASTE OF CHINA
LUNCH $4.99 DINNER $9.99
WEEKLY SPECIALS • 10% OFF

Kansans targeted by court scams
A group of scammers is targeting Kansans with court-ordered debt collection. The scammers claim to be from the Kansas Department of Social Security and are demanding payment for alleged debts. The Kansas Department of Social Security has issued a warning to Kansans to be cautious of such calls.

Sign-ups for all Pancake Day races begin Saturday
The City of Liberal is sponsoring the annual Pancake Day races. Sign-ups for all races begin on Saturday, February 8th. Races include a 5K, 10K, and 15K. Proceeds from the races go to the local food bank.

Hawaii student finds snail in school lunch
A student from Hawaii found a snail in his school lunch. The student's parents contacted the school and the local health department. The school is investigating the incident and has taken steps to ensure the safety of all students.

City of Liberal to convert from Black Bear IT to SmartGov
The City of Liberal is converting from Black Bear IT to SmartGov. SmartGov is a cloud-based software solution that provides a wide range of services, including human resources, financial management, and public works. The conversion is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

City of Liberal to convert from Black Bear IT to SmartGov
The City of Liberal is converting from Black Bear IT to SmartGov. SmartGov is a cloud-based software solution that provides a wide range of services, including human resources, financial management, and public works. The conversion is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Friday, February 7, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & news for 127 years

Kan. universities could join regional online group
A group of Kansas universities is considering joining a regional online consortium. The consortium would provide a wide range of online courses and programs, allowing students to earn credit from multiple institutions. The consortium is expected to be formed in the next few months.

Opponents surge against wind energy project
Opponents of a wind energy project in Kansas are surging. The project, which would involve the construction of several wind turbines, has been met with significant opposition. Opponents claim that the project would harm the local environment and economy. The project is currently on hold.

House panel to vote on gun rights measure
A House panel is expected to vote on a gun rights measure. The measure would prohibit the federal government from regulating firearms. The measure is expected to be passed in the coming weeks.

WELCOME TO THE NEW I-77. What you can't get the printed version, go to www.kanleadertimes.com