Kansans targeted by court scams
A federal judge has issued a nationwide injunction against a company that has been accused of using deceptive tactics to target Kansans with court-ordered judgments. The company, which is based in Florida, has been accused of using a variety of tactics to target Kansans, including sending them letters that appear to be from a court and demanding that they pay a large sum of money. The judge's decision is a significant victory for Kansans who have been targeted by these scams.
